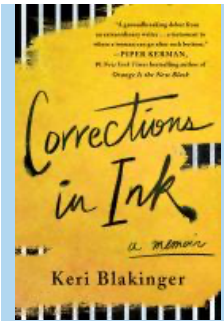
Discussion Guide



Corrections in Ink
Keri Blakinger

St Martin's Press
2022
336 pages
ISBN: 978-1250272850

Substance Use Disorder

Summary

An electric and unforgettable memoir about a young woman's journey from the ice rink to addiction and prison sentence, to the newsroom – and how she emerged with a fierce determination to expose the broken system she experienced.

Questions

1. What are your thoughts about how the book opens and how we meet the author? What were your first impressions?
2. Why do you think the author chose to write this as a memoir? Why do you think the author chose to be honest and open in their writing of this book?
3. What new perspectives did the book provide you with about addiction and recovery?
4. What passage or excerpt was most difficult to read?
5. What are the most important things you learned from this book?
6. Would you recommend this book to friends and family? Why or why not?
7. If you could ask the author a question about this book, what would that be?
8. Why do you think the author chose to write this book?
9. Did you find the way the author told this story to be relatable?
10. Which part of the memoir can you relate to the most?

This discussion guide has been funded in whole or in part with Federal funds from the National Library of Medicine (NLM), National Institutes of Health (NIH). The content was created by the NNLM Reading Club and is solely the responsibility of the authors and does not represent the official views of the National Institutes of Health (NIH). September 2022

NNLM Network of the National Library of Medicine